

Digital change with traceability and quality

Standardize the business labeling process into one platform

Everything you need to transform the labeling process is included.

Cloudlabel has everything you need. NiceLabel's designer tool, with Cloudlabel's document system, the web app (for manual printing), integrated printing, and attestation flow for version management and inspection. The system scales from one user to thousands and can be extended to suppliers, manufacturers, and all company locations. Regardless of geographic location or network access.
